NEPS Worldwide Surpasses 15,000 Screenings Protected from Piracy

LOS ANGELES -- NEPS Worldwide, a global anti-piracy protection and security company, has announced it has successfully protected more than 150 feature film properties at more than 15,000 promotional screenings since 2009.

"We've achieved this milestone because of the trust that our film and distribution clients have in the comprehensive, hand-selected teams of anti-piracy protection agents," said Alan Burton, NEPS President and CEO.

NEPS protects intellectual properties, personnel and select venues for clients around the globe. The company recently opened offices at 9701 Wilshire Blvd, Suite 1000, Beverly Hills, CA 90212. "We wish to better serve one of the world's major entertainment and event capitals," Burton added.

The company focuses on the entertainment industry at corporate and special events in major and minor markets and remote locations. NEPS Worldwide sends top quality, professional plainclothes security agents to protect specialty properties, personnel and the general public.

NEPS Worldwide has offices in California, Michigan, and Calgary. Inquiries may be sent to 9701 Wilshire Boulevard, Suite 1000, Beverly Hills, California, by email at info@nepsusa.com, or by phone 800-577-0899.
